

CONFIDENT, CONNECTED, ACTIVELY INVOLVED

LEARNING

AND GROWING TOGETHER

AKORANGA

WHAKATIPURANGA NGATAHI

LIFELONG LEARNERS

THE KIDS OF

JOHNSONVILLE SCHOOL

We want every student to leave Johnsonville School a confident, connected, actively involved, lifelong learner

Confident

- Is confident in their identity, language and culture
- Values diversity and difference: cultural, linguistic, gender, special needs and abilities
- Is optimistic about the future

Connected

- Enjoys a sense of belonging and connection to school, whānau, friends and the community
- Establishes and maintains positive relationships, respects others' needs and shows empathy
- Is resilient and adaptable in new and changing contexts
- Can take a leadership role and make informed and responsible decisions
- Is physically active and leads a healthy lifestyle

Actively involved

- Is a critical, informed, active and responsible local, national and global citizen
- Is energetic and enterprising, effectively navigating challenges and opportunities
- Is an ethical decision-maker and guardian of the world of the future

Lifelong learner

- Is curious and enjoys intellectual engagement
- Has strong literacy and mathematics understanding and skills
- Is an active seeker, user and creator of new knowledge and understandings
- Self-manages and self-regulates and shows self-efficacy and personal agency
- Is digitally literate, using a range of e-learning tools to support learning
- Confidently tackles challenging tasks and is resilient and perseveres in the face of error and failure
- Uses multiple strategies for learning and problem solving
- Collaborates with and learns from others
- Knows how to set personal goals, self-monitor and self-evaluate
- Reflects on their own thinking and learning